EUROPE NOT VERY SURE OF THE SULTAN

His Promises of Reform Are Taken with a Little More Than the Ordinary Grain of Salt-England's Sorry Position.

London, Nov. 14.-The possible appoint Bayard as American Ambassador to Great Britain is bailed with much satisfaction.

It is said that Mr. Depew, while speaking recently with an English politician, admitted his willingness to accept the post if it were offered to him.

Mr. Depew would certainly be a persona grata in the highest circles, and he is universally popular.

At the last general meeting of the Royal At the last general meeting of the Royal Cork Yacht Club the names E. T. Gould and I ward Gould, of the New York Yacht Pennsy Played Straight Football in Her Club, were added to the list of honorary Parliamentary Works Mensure.

The Cabinet Councils, arranging the Government legislation for the coming session, have decided upon opening business with the Education bill, followed by a Military Works bill, and an elaborate measure dealing with the appointment of a masters' and working to the exigencies of the Parliamentary situation. Its proposals will attract the attention of the European governments concerned in the rapid progress of English armanents for both offensive and defensive purposes.

The great military harbors in Britain are to have their armanuents increased.

A rope was found, and with this they partially hanged him. After they became satisfied that they had secured all of the old man's savings, they bound him to the bed with the rope and left.
